

European Studies 300

Spring 2012

European Integration: Socio-Economic and Political Developments

This team-taught course gives an introduction to the logic of European integration. It takes a number of disciplinary perspectives: political, economic and legal dimensions. Students will learn key concepts, theories of integration and how the process of policy-making and governance work in the European Union. Professors who teach in this class are from the Departments of Economics and Political Science, the School of Public Administration and the Faculty of Law.

Time: Monday and Thursday 1:00 – 2:20

Place: David Strong Building C108

Coordinator: Dr. Amy Verdun

1.5 units; open to all undergraduates

For further information, go to: <http://web.uvic.ca/~europe/>

Questions? Contact averdun@uvic.ca