

The Grandmothers are coming!

FUNDRAISER FOR INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF 13 INDIGENOUS GRANDMOTHERS

Featuring film director CAROLE HART from NYC and GRANDMOTHER JULIETA CASIMIRO, MAZATEC MEDICINE CURANDERA from OAXACA MEXICO

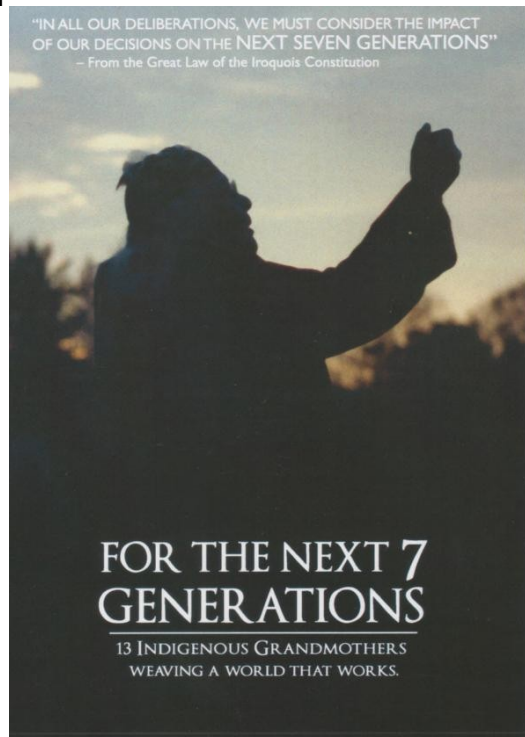

For The Next 7 Generations: 13 Indigenous Grandmothers Weaving a World that Works

Conversation with the Director and Grandmother Julieta following 7 pm screenings

Wednesday and Thursday
May 12 & 13, 2010

at 7 pm and 9 pm at CINECENTA, UVic $9.00/person

For The Next 7 Generations documents the momentous journey of thirteen Indigenous Grandmothers as they travel around the globe - to Mexico, the Brazilian Amazon, the Vatican, and for an audience with the Dalai Lama in India - to promote world peace and share their Indigenous ways of healing. Narrated by Ashley Judd.

Should be mandatory viewing for anyone looking to gain wisdom from our elders.

--Monday Magazine

PLEASE also join us for a CELEBRATION in honor of Carole Hart and Doña Julieta: Thursday May 13 from 3:00 to 4:00pm
Place: FIRST PEOPLES HOUSE - Ceremonial Hall Everyone welcome!

Advance Tickets for film available at Munro's Books and Anti Violence Project office (B027) in UVic Student Union Building.

For more information contact Dr. Lorna Williams at 250-472-5499 or check out www.cinecenta.com

This event is supported by the Office of Indigenous Affairs, the Latin America Research Group and the Anti Violence Project.