

SURVEY: Terms of Address in Canada

This is a short survey that is being conducted by students of LING 395 – Sociolinguistics, at the University of Victoria. We are investigating how Canadian think men and women talk. Your participation is completely voluntary, and you may withdraw from participation at any time. If you have questions, please contact the course instructor, Dr. Alexandra D’Arcy, at 250-472-4579.

I agree to participate in this survey.

Naming Survey

For each of the following individuals, check how you feel is the most appropriate way to address them (would you call them Robert, Dr. Harvey, Bob, Bruiser, etc.?). Tick all that apply. Then, answer the questions about your choices.

	Their given name (e.g. Elizabeth)	Their title (e.g. Mrs Smith)	Other (e.g. Liz, nickname, nothing, etc.)
i. Your friend’s parent
If you selected ‘other’, please list the possibilities.
For each box that you ticked/name listed, what does that term of address convey?
For the box(es) you did not select, please explain why you would not use this term.
What term would you use if you were talking to your best friend about this person?
