

Presentations grouped in three areas:

- Experimental research on face-to-face dialogue, pages 1-2
- Applications of experimental research to communication in psychotherapy, pages 3-8
- Applications of experimental research to medical communication, pages 9-10

Experimental Research on Face-to-face Dialogue
Year	Category	Title	Author(s)	Institution	Place
2006, June	Conference symposium	Organized symposium, “Microanalysis of Dialogue: Applications to Practical Settings”	J. Bavelas & J. Gerwing	International Congress on Language and Social Psychology	Bonn, Germany
2006, June	Conference paper	“New vs. given Information. The natural history of a gesture.”	J. Woods & J. Bavelas	International Congress on Language and Social Psychology	Bonn, Germany
2007, Mar.	Invited talk	“Why do speakers gesture on the phone? A puzzle within a puzzle”	J. Bavelas	Royal Society of Canada, Victoria chapter	Victoria, BC
2007, May	Invited talk	“Basic research on communication in face-to-face dialogue.”	J. Bavelas	NAKMI (Norwegian Institute for Research on Immigrant Health)	Oslo, Norway
2007, June	Programmatic panel	“Dialogue elicits demonstrations (icons). Evidence from gestures, faces, and words”	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, S. Healing, A. Del Vento, & N. Chovil	International Society for Gesture Studies conference	Chicago, IL
2008, Mar.	Invited talk	“Dialogue and demonstrations”	J. Bavelas	Stanford Language Use Group	Stanford, CA
2008, Nov.	Invited talk	“Communication in face-to-face dialogue”	J. Bavelas	School of Social Work, Hogeschool van Amsterdam	Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Experimental Research on Face-to-face Dialogue (continued)
2009, May	Invited lecture	“Microanalysis of dialogue”	J. Bavelas	British Columbia Cancer Agency, Vancouver Island Centre	Victoria, BC
2009, Sept.	Invited plenary	“Applying basic research on face-to-face dialogue to psychotherapeutic and medical Interactions”	J. Bavelas	Swiss Psychological Society conference	Neuchâtel, Switzerland
2009, Sept.	Invited plenary	“What’s unique about dialogue?”	J. Bavelas	SIGDial (Special Interest Group on Dialogue) conference	London, UK
2009, Oct.	Invited colloquium	“Dialogue and demonstrations (icons)”	J. Bavelas	Department of Linguistics, University of Victoria	Victoria, BC
2010, June	Invited colloquium	“Demonstrations and dialogue”	J. Bavelas	CITEC (Cognitive Interaction Technology), University of Bielefeld	Bielefeld, Germany
2010, June	Two-day workshop	“A radically social view of gestures”	J. Bavelas & J. Gerwing	Sociable Agents Group, CITEC, University of Bielefeld	Bielefeld, Germany
2010, July	Invited Plenary	“A radically social view of gestures”	J. Bavelas	International Society for Gesture Studies Summer School	Frankfurt (Oder), Germany
2010, Nov.	Panel paper	“Getting it straight about equivocation”	J. Bavelas	(U.S.) National Communication Association	San Francisco, CA

Applications of Experimental Research to Communication in Psychotherapy
Year	Category	Title	Author(s)	Institution	Place
2006, Mar.	Invited plenary	“Steve de Shazer: A research tribute”	J. Bavelas	Solution-focused Trainers conference	Amsterdam, The Netherlands
2006, Mar.	Invited colloquium	“Research on psychotherapy: A variety of methods”	J. Bavelas	Department of Psychology, Free University of Brussels	Brussels, Belgium
2006, June	Symposium paper	"Microanalytic comparison of client-centred and solution-focused therapies	C. Tomori & J. Bavelas	International Congress on Language and Social Psychology	Bonn, Germany
2006, Nov.	Conference presentation	“Microanalysis of Solution-focused Therapy”	J. Bavelas & A. Del Vento	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Denver, CO
2006, Nov.	Closing plenary	“Research on Solution-focused Therapy”	I.K. Berg, H. Korman, & J. Bavelas	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Denver, CO
2007, Mar.	Invited talk	“The language of apologies and non-apologies”	J. Bavelas	Peninsula Crossroads Community Justice Program	Central Saanich, BC
2007, May	Invited plenary	“Early diagnosis of autism: A solution-focused approach”	J. Gerwing & J. Bavelas	Solution Focused Trainers conference	Amsterdam, The Netherlands
2007, May	One-day workshop	“Introduction to microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy and medical interactions”	J. Bavelas	NAKMI (Norwegian Institute for Research on Immigrant Health)	Oslo, Norway
2007, Aug.	Five-day workshop	“Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy for practice and research”	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	Victoria Microanalysis Associates	Victoria, BC

Applications of Experimental Research to Communication in Psychotherapy (continued)
2007, Nov.	Three-day workshop	“Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy for practice and research”	J. Bavelas	Northwest Brief Therapy Training Center	Olympia, WA
2007, Nov.	Conference symposium	Organized and introduced symposium on “Four corners for an evidence base”	J. Bavelas	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Toronto, ON
2007, Nov.	Symposium paper	“Lab experiments on theoretical premises”	J. Bavelas	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Toronto, ON
2007, Nov.	Symposium paper	“Lab experiments on psychotherapy techniques”	S. Healing & J. Bavelas	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Toronto, ON
2007, Nov.	Three-day post-conference workshop	“Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy for practice and research”	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Toronto, ON
2008, Feb.	Three-day workshop	“Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy for practice and research”	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	SIKT (Skabersjö Institute for Brief Therapy)	Malmö, Sweden
2008, Feb.	Three-day workshop	“Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy for practice and research”	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	Solutions Centre	Utrecht, The Netherlands
2008, April	Symposium	Organized and introduced symposium, “Moving forward with research”	J. Bavelas	Solution-focused World Conference	Aruba
2008, April	Symposium paper	“What do psychotherapists actually do? Microanalysis of communication in solution-focused and other therapies”	S. Smock, A. Froerer, H. Korman, & J. Bavelas	Solution-focused World Conference	Aruba

Applications of Experimental Research to Communication in Psychotherapy (continued)
2008, April	Conference presentation	"Support from an unexpected source: Experimental evidence for co-construction"	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, & S. Healing	Solution-focused World Conference	Aruba
2008, April	Invited plenary	"A tribute to Steve de Shazer and Insoo Kim Berg"	J. Bavelas	Solution-focused World Conference	Aruba
2008, April	Invited lecture	"Basic and applied research on the unique features of face-to-face dialogue"	J. Bavelas	NAKMI (Norwegian Institute for Research on Immigrant Health)	Oslo, Norway
2008, May	Three-day workshop	"Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy for practice and research"	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	SIKT (Skabersjö Institute for Brief Therapy)	Malmö, Sweden
2008, Nov.	Invited plenary	"Observing co-construction: Microanalysis of therapeutic dialogue"	J. Bavelas	Congreso Nacional de Terapia Familiar (Spanish National Family Therapy Congress)	Oviedo, Spain
2008, Nov.	Two workshops	"Applying communication research to teaching, training, and coaching"	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	Fontys Teachers College	Tilburg, The Netherlands
2008, Nov.	Conference paper	"Are Solution-focused and Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy the same? A microanalysis of positive and negative content"	S. Smock, A. Froerer, & J. Bavelas	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Austin, TX
2008, Nov.	Conference paper	"How co-construction happens: Formulations in SFBT, CBT, and MI"	J. Bavelas, P. De Jong, & H. Korman	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Austin, TX
2009, Sept.	Conference paper	"CBT and SFBT: A look at the similarities and differences"	S. Smock, A. Froerer, & J. Bavelas	American Association of Marital and Family Therapy conference	Sacramento, CA

Applications of Experimental Research to Communication in Psychotherapy (continued)
2009, Sept.	Conference paper	“Research on co-construction: Microanalysis of formulations in SFT, CBT, and MI”	H. Korman & J. Bavelas	European Brief Therapy Association conference	Helsinki, Finland
2009, Sept.	Conference workshop	“How to do microanalysis of formulations. A workshop for practitioners, supervisors, and trainers”	H. Korman & J. Bavelas	European Brief Therapy Association conference	Helsinki, Finland
2009, Nov.	Conference paper	“Research on co-construction: Microanalysis of formulations in SFT, CBT, and MI”	P. De Jong, J. Bavelas, & H. Korman	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Albany, NY
2009, Nov.	Two-day post-conference workshop	“Microanalysis for trainers and supervisors”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Albany, NY
2010, June	Two-day workshop	“Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	Malmö University	Malmö, Sweden
2010, June	Invited presentation	“ Pragmatics of Human Communication 40 years later: What is the same, what has changed?”	J. Bavelas	(Lodz Institute for Psychotherapy)	Lodz, Poland
2010, June	Workshop	“Language as a tool for psychotherapy: How microanalysis informs practice”	J. Bavelas	(Lodz Institute for Psychotherapy)	Lodz, Poland
2010, June	Two-day workshop	“Microanalysis of communication in psychotherapy”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	[HerkenrodeGroep]	Hasselt, Belgium
2010, June	Invited plenary	“Small steps: The practical origins of brief therapies”	J. Bavelas	NIK anniversary meeting (Northern Germany Institute for Brief Therapy)	Berlin, Germany

Applications of Experimental Research to Communication in Psychotherapy (continued)
2010, June	Half-day workshop	“Introduction to communication research for practitioners”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	NIK anniversary meeting (Northern Germany Institute for Brief Therapy)	Berlin, Germany
2010, June	Two-day workshop	“Communication research for practitioners”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	NIK (Northern Germany Institute for Brief Therapy)	Bremen, Germany
2010, Aug.	Panel paper	“Research on the language of psychotherapy: SFBT contributions”	J. Bavelas	American Psychological Association conference	San Diego, CA
2010, Sept.	One-day workshop	“New perspectives on communication” and “Psychotherapy as dialogue. Connecting research and practice”	J. Bavelas	University of Gothenburg	Gothenburg, Sweden
2010, Sept.	Paper on plenary panel	“The evidence base for co-construction”	J. Bavelas	European Brief Therapy Association conference	Malmö, Sweden
2010, Sept.	Presentation	“The Miracle Question experiment”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	European Brief Therapy Association conference	Malmö, Sweden
2010, Sept.	Panel	Co-organized and introduced research panel, “Are SFBT and CBT really different? Using Microanalysis to Compare What Therapists Do”	J. Bavelas, P. De Jong, A. Froerer, H. Korman, & S. Smock	European Brief Therapy Association conference	Malmö, Sweden
2010, Nov.	Invited plenary	““What is different About Solution- focused Therapy?”	P. De Jong & J. Bavelas	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Banff, AB

Applications of Experimental Research to Communication in Psychotherapy (continued)

2010, Nov.	Two-day post-conference workshop	“Microanalysis for trainers and supervisors”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association conference	Banff, AB
2011, Mar.	Invited Plenary	“Continuity and change: The MRI and family therapy”	J. Bavelas	BVRGS [Belgium Family Therapy Association] conference	Antwerp, Belgium

Applications of Experimental Research to Medical Communication

Year	Category	Title	Author(s)	Institution	Place
2006, June	Symposium paper	"Physicians' use of indirect language for bad vs. good news"	A. Del Vento, J. Bavelas, G. MacLean, & P. Kirk	International Congress on Language and Social Psychology	Bonn, Germany
2006, Nov.	Winning poster in Translation Innovation	"Balancing truth and hope: The skilful use of indirect language in delivering bad news."	S. Healing, A. Del Vento, J. Bavelas, P. Kirk, & G. MacLean	British Columbia Cancer Agency annual cancer conference	Vancouver, BC
2007, Mar.	Research presentation	"The experiment on delivering bad news"	J. Bavelas, A. Del Vento, S. Healing, P. Kirk	British Columbia Cancer Agency, Vancouver Island Centre	Victoria, BC
2008, May	Research Grand Rounds	"Myths of communication: Delivering bad news"	J. Bavelas, P. Kirk, & S. Healing	Vancouver Island Health Authority	Victoria, BC
2008, Sept.	Conference presentation	"Introducing evidence-based principles of communication into palliative care"	J. Bavelas, P. Kirk, & S. Healing	International Congress on Palliative Care	Montreal, PQ
2008, Oct.	Psycho-geriatric Rounds	"Balancing truth and hope in the bad news interview"	J. Bavelas, P. Kirk, & S. Healing	Vancouver Island Health Authority	Victoria, BC
2009, Sept.	Poster	"Debunking communication myths. Introducing basic research into residency education"	S. Healing, C. Tomori, J. Gerwing, J. Bavelas, G. MacLean, & P. Kirk	International Conference on Residency Education	Victoria, BC
2010, Feb.	One-day workshop	"Replacing communication myths with research insights"	J. Bavelas, J. Gerwing, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	British Columbia Cancer Agency, Vancouver Island Centre	Victoria, BC

Applications of Experimental Research to Medical Communication (continued)

2010, June	One-day workshop	“Communication in medical practice”	J. Bavelas, S. Healing, & C. Tomori	[HerkenrodeGroep]	Hasselt, Belgium
------------	------------------	-------------------------------------	---	-------------------	------------------