

ALAN HEDLEY SOCIOLOGY HONOURS ESSAY AWARD

Each year, the Department of Sociology gives an award for the strongest honours essay. In 2008, this Award was renamed the Alan Hedley Sociology Honours Essay Award in honour of Dr. Alan Hedley, faculty member and former Chair of the Department. Throughout his career, Dr. Hedley was committed to excellence in undergraduate teaching and to the advancement of rigorous scientific research on social issues. The award celebrates Dr. Hedley's commitment to sociology and scholarship.

The Department congratulates all of its award recipients. Recent recipients include:

2010

Mahon, Denise. "Managing" the Homeless: Examining Structural Policing and Victoria's Homeless Population" (S Hier, advisor)

2009

Eyles, Natasha. "It's Easy Being Green: Advertising and the Individualization of Environmental Responsibility" (B Carroll, advisor)

2008

McBride, Katharine. "Caring for South Indian Women with HIV/AIDS in the Context of Culture and Religion" (A Smith, advisor)

2007

Graham, Rebecca. "Media Narratives of the Missing Women: Gendered Geographies and Political Invisibility." (H Hallgrimsdottir, advisor)

2006

Daley, Kevin. "Penal Politics and the Canadian Case: The Continued Influence of the Rehabilitative Ideal in the Canadian Field of Crime Control and the Role of Penal Populism" (H Hallgrimsdottir, advisor)

2005

Clouston, Sean. "The Path Through Victoria: An Exploration in the Diffusion of Buddhism" (D. Gartrell, advisor)