University of Victoria
Interdisciplinary Minor/Diploma in Social Justice Studies

Term: January – April 2018
Teaching Assistant Vacancy

(CUPE 4163 Specialist Instructional Laboratory Instructors & Academic Assistants)

POSITION AVAILABLE:

SJS 200, Introduction to the Practice of Social Justice - 1 Academic Assistant, 90 hours total. Rate of Pay $25.15 per hour (effective September 1, 2017). Class meets Wed. 5:00-7:50 pm

An interdisciplinary, team-taught approach to the practice of social justice. Focuses on understanding the application of social justice concepts and theories to effect social and political change, including the social and political movements and processes that have been mobilized to address issues of social injustice.

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

Under the supervision of the teaching team, the teaching assistant is expected to support students and instructors in the following ways: attend all classes; assist with the organization of first class including set up and contact with students via moodle; Organizing and facilitating group presentations; grading of weekly reflection writing; assist with grading of final assignment; attend Conversation with Activist evening lectures (on the same evenings as class); supplementary research of links between activism themes and local activism forums (posters, websites, and/or organizational information); providing email contact/support to students as necessary.

How to Apply:

Complete the University of Victoria Application Form (can be found on the Social Justice Studies website) and send it along with a curriculum vitae and email it on or before the posting closing date of November 20\textsuperscript{th}, 2016 4:00 pm to: idpassis@uvic.ca