kym a. hines (aka Hothead) is a man born woman, and identifies as a Transgendered Anarcho Anti Colonial Radical Feminist! He is a co-parent, a local filmmaker, poet, writer and performer, among other activities. A member of the Committee to End Homelessness, Hothead keeps a watchful eye out for those who live on the street or are street involved. He encourages us to bear witness to interactions between police and our most vulnerable citizens. His current film, Taking the Fall, explores some of these interactions.
