

Emily Sikazwe

Founder of Women for Change

SPEAKS ON

GENDER AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN AFRICA

Thursday, February 17TH

UVic Social Sciences
(SSM - Room A102)

7:00 - 8:30pm

Emily Sikazwe is the Executive Director of Women for Change, Zambia, a member of the AU NEPAD Gender Task Force, co-Chair of Social Watch International and delegate at the UN Commission Status of Women. Emily Sikazwe is a dedicated and outspoken advocate for gender and human rights, with nearly two decades of experience working to create social and political change to empower women and eradicate poverty in southern Africa.

University of Victoria

Social Justice
Studies

Women's Studies
Department