The Dakota's Passengers.

We incline to believe that the list of passengers for Victoria telegraphed to us on the 10th inst. is incomplete. There are probably a few others who took their tickets on board...

By Spiritual Telegraph.

About 7 1/2 o'clock last night a lady in this city who is gifted with mediumistic powers was suddenly seized with a desire to write. Grasping a pen and ink she was guided by some unseen force to write the words, "The Dakota is all right and her passengers are well..."

THE DAKOTA SAFE!

She Returns to San Francisco with a Broken Shaft.

At about half past eight o'clock last night intimation was received from the Seattle office that the telegraph line to San Francisco was all right. Mr. Wilson, superintendent of telegraphs, was summoned to the office by telephone...

SEATTLE, Jan. 18—8:40 P.M.

TO THE COLONIST—

The Dakota is safe at San Francisco. Broke her shaft. All well.

OPERATOR.

This glad news was immediately handed to the editor of Campbell's Bulletin and by him posted in large letters so that all might read. Next came a message to Welch, Rithet & Co., agents of the steamship, which conveyed the additional intelligence that the Dakota was towed back to San Francisco on the 16th inst. (Sunday) by the steamship Victoria, having broken her shaft. A happier set of men than those who had congregated in the telegraph office and on the street corners has seldom been seen in Victoria.

The youthful operator at the telephone office shouted the glad tidings over the wires to every subscriber, and the joyful intelligence vibrated like a blessing through scores of households.

At Broughton Street Hall a large audience were assembled to witness a performance. In the midst of the programme Mr. Wallace, the chairman, announced that the Dakota was safe. The announcement seemed to thrill the audience and their feelings found vent in hearty rounds of cheers.

The theory advanced by us yesterday in referring to the causes of the detention of the Dakota has been fully borne out in the event. The Dakota, sailing from San Francisco on the 10th, broke down on the 11th or 12th inst. The magnificent seamanship of Capt. Morse was then called into action. He spread his canvas and stood away for San Francisco keeping well off shore.

"All's well that ends well." And after the suspense and sleepless nights and gloomy forebodings we fancy that Victoria laid down last night with a thankful heart to pleasant dreams.

BROUGHTON STREET HALL.—The entertainment in Broughton Street Hall last evening was well attended. The first part of the programme, which consisted of vocal and instrumental music, was a most interesting one. An opening piece by the orchestra was followed with a song by Mrs. A. B. Gray which received an encore.

The steamer Princess Louise left at 8 a.m. yesterday for New Westminster with mails, freight, &c. Her passenger list will be found under the usual heading.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.)

TUESDAY, JAN. 18.

A light calendar compared with yesterday—only two new and a few remanded cases on the docket.

In the case of John Coleman on remand for supplying whiskey to an Indian, Mr. Courtney stated that he was a hard working man and has been constantly employed at the Albion Foundry.

The Magistrate ordered a discharge. The two Chinamen remanded on a charge of vagrancy were again before the Court.

Mr. Courtney for the defendants cross-examined officer Lindsay at some length respecting his knowledge of the Chinamen. The officer said he knew one of them to be an old offender he having been in the chaining. His queue had been cut off.

Mr. Courtney contended that the case did not come under the vagrancy clause of the act; and that nothing had been proved against the Chinamen.

His worship thought that the case was one that came under the clause in question if the evidence supported the charge. He did not consider the evidence in the case of the second Chinaman sufficient for conviction; but he wished to look into that of the first one. He would therefore remand him for one day and discharge the other.

Paul Scott was charged with unlawfully and maliciously breaking in a door belonging to James Peat.

The complaint stated that his house was situated on the water front near Store street. About one o'clock Monday he saw defendant with a sharp ax breaking in his door. He told him that Judge Pemberton would not approve of that way of doing, and as he had done that sort of thing before and that he had better take care. Understood Scott to say that he was going to take the whole house down and the complainant, too. Defendant had been a nuisance for two years.

In reply to Mr. Mills for the defendant, witness stated that Mr. Spratt was the land in his possession was that on which the house and woodshed stand. The passage was common to his and defendant's houses. He had fenced up the passage, in which was a door with lock and key. He had to nail his front door up on account of filth. This door he had nailed up and it was one of the defendant had broken in. Defendant had no more right to the door than to the stove in the house, or the coal on the counsel's back.

His Worship advised the parties to settle the difficulty without going further. If this could not be done it could be carried by the plaintiff to a higher Court.

Mr. Mills' application for costs was not granted.

The case of Johnny Wilson, an Indian, on remand for stealing a boat, or having it in his possession knowing it to have been stolen from Washington Territory, was next called up.

Nothing further had been ascertained about the matter and the case was remanded for a week so as to get information from Seattle, prisoner to be liberated on his own recognizances.

Charles Counts, for stealing a blanket, was again remanded for two days, pending the arrival of a witness from Nanaimo.

Marine.

The latest charters reported at San Francisco are the ship Solitaire, 1,532 tons, wharf to Cork, 25th ship, Pectolus, 1,205 tons, wharf to Liverpool direct, £3 1s 3d; £3 3s 9d; ship America, 2,054 tons, and ship St. Paul, 1,894 tons, wheat to Cork and Liverpool respectively, private; ship J. B. Walker, 2,172 tons, wheat to Liverpool direct, £3.

The steamer Victoria is expected to arrive to-day from San Francisco. She will proceed to New Westminster, discharge cargo and return to this port in time to sail with passengers and mails for San Francisco on the 22nd inst.

Steamship Idaho should sail from San Francisco for Victoria to-morrow.

BUNGLING 'PRENTICE HANDS.—Burglary attempts are of so frequent occurrence that but little notice is now taken of them except by the victims. Every fresh example only proves that the would-be burglars are bungling novices at the business.

If an entrance is effected nothing of much value is carried off. If valuables are within reach the thieves are not sufficiently practiced to find them. Still the old adage that practice makes perfect may be applicable to Victoria's would-be burglars, and we may yet hear of some successful exploit unless the police force have the good fortune to break up the gang and stop their depredations.

While the last snow was on the ground footprints were discovered on the verandah of a grocery store in town indicating that an attempt had been made on the upper window fastenings; but either they were too strong or some interruption occurred for nothing was accomplished.

GONE BACK TO THE DARK AGES.—Only to think in a city like Berlin, with its scholars, its learning, its progress, its civilization, its advance in all intellectual, that its Jewish people keep in doors as much as practicable in order to escape insult on the streets.

THE heavy rains that fell here on Monday and Monday night were doubtless the fag-end of the Oregon storm which has wrought such sad havoc in that State. We shall probably hear to-day or to-morrow that the storm is over and telegraphic communication renewed.

In SEATTLE the excitement respecting the Dakota equities that exhibited here and numerous enquiries passed over the wires to this place yesterday.

THE CITY FATHERS.

Paternal Advice of the Mayor.

On Monday evening, after the various committees had been appointed, His Worship stated that he would offer a few remarks on the duties of committee-men. The committee of finance was a very important one, and it should look well after the financial condition of the city. There was a large amount of arrearages of taxes on the city books and these should be collected as soon as possible.

The water committee should do their best to improve the quality of water and also take the question of rearrangement of water rates into consideration. It is important that revenue should be increased and taxation, if possible, reduced.

With reference to streets the street committee should see that they were kept in best order practically with the amount of revenue at their disposal. The question of sidewalks should also be well considered. It seemed to him that the time had arrived for the Council to take them over and hereafter keep them in repair at the expense of the city. It would, however, be unfair to property-holders who had just made new sidewalks to exempt those who had been delinquent or who owned property alongside which sidewalks were required. In such cases sidewalks should be put in order before being taken over.

The planting of shade trees should be encouraged in every possible way as nothing tended more to improve the appearance of the streets and the health of the city. The Sanitary Committee had a great work before it. The sewage question must be seriously considered. For the carrying out of a well-digested scheme, perhaps it might be advisable to raise a loan. It was time, also, to consolidate the City Bylaws. At present nobody knew what Bylaws were in force. The present system of nominations he considered a farce; they should be made in a manner to correspond with nominations for the legislature. There was also a difficulty about road tax-payers. In no other city that he knew of were they allowed to vote for Municipal officers. The question as to whether the tax on insurance should be repealed should also receive consideration. The City Hall Committee would have to ascertain the condition of the Council building. The foundation required looking after; and the roof was in a bad condition. On the whole he considered that the new Council was a good one and he was certain they would work for the best interests of the city, and in harmony with each other.

A CAT WITH AN ECSTASY.—What should be done with a cat that has propped a hen's nest, driven the natural mother away and persists in sitting on a dozen eggs, leaving them only to get food and water? This is an actuality. A venerable mouse nine years of age and the mother of innumerable litters of kittens imagines herself to be a hen and has set herself industriously to hatch out a brood of chickens. With her ample body she covers all the eggs and keeps them as snug and warm as if she were their own mother. Driven from her unnatural position time and again she invariably returns and takes possession of the eggs. The hen is in despair and the cat, apparently, in clover.

PROGRESS.—Work on the new organ for the Presbyterian church is being rapidly pushed ahead. In a few days the organ will be completed sufficiently to show what the appearance of the instrument will be. The front will really make a fine show, being about 21 feet feet from side to side. The depth is much less than the one in the Methodist church. In that organ the large pipes are all in the rear while in the one just arrived they are located on each side. Besides being nearly as wide again as the Methodist instrument it is much loftier and will altogether present a much finer appearance.

THE Ottawa Police Commissioners recently dismissed the entire force for signing a testimonial to their comrade who was recently committed to goal for contempt of court. Seventeen of the number, however, were subsequently reinstated on showing that they had signed the document without being fully aware of the nature of its contents.

REMARKABLE.—A few days ago a company of young men collected in Portland, Oregon, when it was ascertained that fifteen of them then present had at one time or other attended school in the old Central School building in this city while it occupied the site of the Mechanics' Institute on Fort street. This fact shows what a large number of whilom Victorians are located in Portland, as well as many other places on the Pacific Coast.

THE Bishop's Close working party will hold a sale of useful clothing and some fancy articles at Angela College on Saturday next. The proceeds will be devoted to missionary objects.

These Conundrums.

TO THE EDITOR.—I would suggest that all conundrums be sent in to the Mechanics' Institute the day before the entertainment.

The person who reads them out to the audience should possess a strong and clear voice, and he should have an opportunity of reading over the several conundrums some time before he reads them on the night of the entertainment.

The point or force of many conundrums will lie in having emphasis properly placed, and to do this correctly the reader must understand what the conundrums are aiming at.

Doubtless many of the jokes will be very hard to see; every opportunity should, therefore, be afforded to have them placed in a proper light by those who have an eye to the success of the entertainment.

A Grand Reputation.

Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has reached a reputation that is not limited by the confines of action or country. There are no injurious substances nor false and temporary stimulants in the preparation. It is purely vegetable and compounded under a formula that has passed severe tests and won endorsements from some of the highest medical talent in the country.—New York World.

The "American" Phoenix Fire Insurance Company.

VICTORIA, Dec. 22nd, 1880.

TO THE EDITOR:—In reply to your advertising correspondent "Insurer" who endeavours to bolster up the American Phoenix Fire Insurance Company to the detriment of the British Fire Insurance Companies (against whom are so out standing claims) it may be remarked as a noticeable fact that every American Fire Insurance Company hitherto having an agency at Victoria has failed, the deluded victims receiving nothing for the premiums they paid. For the benefit of the insuring public is subjoined an extract from the Canada Blue Book for 1879, showing the attested statement of the standing of the American Phoenix Company represented in this city by H. F. Heisterman and Co.—

Table with financial data: Amount authorized subscribed and paid up in cash, Total Assets in Canada, Total Amount of Unsatisfied Losses in Canada, Total Net Amount in force in Canada, etc.

Subscribed and sworn to 18th February, 1880, by ROBERT HAMPSON, Agent in Canada.

General business statement for the year ending 31st December, 1879, as returned to the Department of Insurance, State of New York.

PHILANDER SHAW, Secretary. New York, 13th February, 1880.

The Phoenix Insurance Company of Brooklyn, N. Y., vs. the English Fire Offices.

TO THE EDITOR:—Thanks to your correspondent who had not the manhood to sign his name for advertising the business of the "Phoenix" as far as it shows the magnitude of its operations; and we certainly hold him responsible for the untruths and garbled statements he has made. Your correspondent says the Phoenix had $23,676 unsettled fire losses on Dec. 31st, 1879. This is a falsehood; not a single dollar did the Company owe which was not paid, (see Blue Book 1879).

The $23,676 he refers to were Marine losses in course of adjustment, and anybody but a gullible knave knows these losses are different in their nature from fire losses. As regards his statement that no British Company had any outstanding claims, the Blue Book says the Royal alone had $19,833.46, of which $3,620 were resisted and in suit, and $2,600 not resisted (see Blue Book). So much for the veracity of the English extortioners.

Your correspondent seems in the habit of making sweeping assertions without foundation in fact; and the one cited above shows what his assertions are worth. He says every American Insurance Company that has ever done business here has failed. Does he mean that the "Union" of San Francisco is shakely? We always thought that a good company. "It is a dirty bird that fouls his own nest."

There was but one small American fire office doing business here. Its name was the People's Company, and it withdrew of its own accord and nobody lost any money by it.

The first first-class American fire company that ever opened an office here was the Phoenix of Brooklyn, and it has been in business in the United States since 1853; has progressed in magnitude of business year to year and paid every loss against its insurance organization. Last year it stood fifth on the list, including English companies, in amount of premiums received in the United States.

The reason your correspondent is so enraged is that the English companies are losing their business and none more so than himself. The public see that it is high time to break the iron ring that the combination had forced hitherto round their necks and give their business where it finds justice done to them. After trying by all sorts of misrepresentation at the head offices, both in England and in New York, to compel H. F. HEISTERMAN & Co. to join their combination and signally failing therein, they suddenly discover (the fossils) that there is a plentiful supply of water and oil! generosity, reduce the rates one quarter per cent!!!

But it is no use; the public see through the dodge and continue to leave the English offices because they can do better with the agents of the "Phoenix" Insurance Company of Brooklyn, N. Y., H. F. HEISTERMAN & Co.

Boys' Clothing.—W. & J. Wilson have just received an invoice of Boys' Suits, purchased at the salvage sale of the stock of Samuels Brothers, London. These Suits are made of Samuels Brothers' celebrated "Wear-resisting Fabrics," and as they were bought a great bargain W. & J. Wilson now offer them at less than 10 per cent. advance on Samuels Bros.' marked prices.

EXPECTED TO ARRIVE.—The Rev. J. C. Baker, of Salem, Oregon, is expected to arrive at Victoria (God willing) on the 19th inst. He will preach in the Baptist chapel every Sunday morning and evening. It is also his intention to hold services during the week to which all are invited.

WHEN EXAMINED AFTER DEATH, the lungs of those who have died of tubercular consumption are found to be honey-combed with little cells full of purulent matter. To this terrible condition the lungs of any one may be brought who neglects a cough or cold. Unfortunately many so-called cough remedies are ineffective as well as impure, containing ingredients absolutely prejudicial to the physical well-being of those who use them.

There is, however, a source of renewed health and strength upon which persons harassed and weakened by lung and bronchial affections can depend with certainty. We refer to Northrop and Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, which is justly esteemed throughout the Dominion for its effectiveness and purity. The medical faculty have long recognized the value of purified oil, obtained from the cod's liver, in throat and lung affections, and here hypophosphites are universally prescribed in cases of pulmonary decline and general debility. In this preparation the phosphorus which it contains (phosphorus being an important natural constituent of the physical organism) serves to supply stamina and vitality, by enriching the blood, while the lime and soda are of invaluable service in solidifying and strengthening the bones. This medicine not only counteracts pulmonary inflammation and arrests physical decline, but is a valuable remedy in scrofulous cases. As a means of checking and compensating for the tremendous waste of bodily tissues caused by lung and chest diseases—of healing and soothing the irritated membrane of the breathing organs, and of promoting the development of pure, rich blood, this preparation has no equal. All druggists sell it.

WANTED.—An accomplished salesman, to be a second Lord Chesterfield in address, conversant with the four leading languages, and with sufficient self-possession to bottle his own feelings. To submit to affronts passively; to exercise the patience of Job; to subdue pride of character; and to smother the promptings of his soul; to have the tincture of the politician without being tainted with it; to regard bribery and customs frauds as low and criminal; to look upon untruthfulness, not as an accomplishment, but as the reservoir from which all other vices percolate; and to be possessed of principles not as lythe as the branches of the willow tree. Such an one will find a remunerative welcome and a useful field to distribute the newly arrived Christmas and New Year's Presents provided for the season. Nothing marvelous, but of their kind good.—T. N. Hibben & Co.
