

The Sex of Angels and of ... Young Persons

An interdisciplinary Symposium

Open to everyone

University of Victoria

Saturday, April 25th, 2009

Clearihue A 311

RSVP by April 19 for attendance: hcazes@uvic.ca or helgat@uvic.ca

9:00-9:15	Coffee
9:15-9:30	Opening Remarks
9:30	Helga Thorson, "Masking/Unmasking Identity in Early Twentieth-Century Germany: The Importance of N. O. Body"
10:00	Samantha Wilde, "The mirror of Hermaphroditus: Ovid, Metamorphoses , 4, 285-415"
10:30	Sandra Friesen, "Gendering the Dildo-Donned Woman: The 'Lesbian Dildo Debates,' Revisited"
11:00	Coffee Break
11:15	Hélène Cazes, "On the Gender of Babies and the Sex of Angels: Medieval and Renaissance Attitudes towards Infants."
11:45	Erin Fairweather, "Unveiling Gender: Merlin and Grisandole, tale of the 12 th century."
12:15	Annick Leontine Macaskill, "'Et jadis fus femme, de fait / Homme suis": Christine de Pizan's Renunciation of the Feminine in La Mutacion de Fortune "
12:45	Hosted Lunch
13:30	Abby Pollen, "Gender As You Like it "
14:00	Cody Poulton, "A Kind of Girl: Cross-Dressing in Japanese Theatre"
14:40	Coffee Break
15:00	Christa Hunfeld, "Cosmetics, Consumerism and Gender Corruption in Early Modern England"
15:30	Jude Goertzen, "The 'Amazon' in Early Modern England: Warrior Woman or Object of a Pornographic Gaze?"
16:00	Heather Tapley, "The American Hobo: Big Rocks and Lots of Candy"
16:30	Closing Remarks
16:40	Ernst Lubitsch, I don't want to be a man (1918)