* "I got my reply from science journalist Christie Nicholson. All my researching has really strengthened my journalism skills!
Journalists can be like superheroes because they can get themselves in (and out of!) dangerous situations, have to have critical-thinking skills, have to be brave, and have to expose the truth. No matter what." — Jessie *

* Join 13-year-old Jessie as she keeps a diary of her class's yearlong research project on superheroes, * which culminates in the Superhero Slam: a head-to-head debate battle! PROJECT SUPERHERO combines science facts, lively illustrations, and comic book trivia with actual correspondence from superhumans including Christie Nicholson, journalist and contributing editor for SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN and * SMARTPLANET.
