We are delighted to announce the forthcoming publication of The Encyclopedia of Victorian Literature.

Reflecting the most recent critical trends in Victorian scholarship, The Encyclopedia of Victorian Literature spans the full sweep of literary genres and figures that define this influential period.

- Comprises over 330 cross-referenced entries ranging from 1,000 to 7,000 words, arranged in A-Z format
- Brings together an impressive team of established and emerging literary scholars from around the world, including Patrick Brantlinger, Regenia Gagnier, Catherine Gallagher, Kate Flint, and Herbert F. Tucker
- Features in-depth omnibus entries exploring major topics, including the novel, plays, poetry, and global Victorian studies, alongside succinct entries on themes such as cosmopolitanism, journalism, race, sexuality, and reading
- Explores the global influence of this literary era on countries and continents from Australia, Afghanistan, and the Arctic, to Africa, China, and the Caribbean
- Combines accessibility with an unmatched breadth of coverage and authoritative scholarship to offer an indispensable resource to the current state and future directions of Victorian literature
