Interdisciplinary Programs

The University of Victoria offers a number of interdisciplinary degree and diploma programs at the undergraduate level that do not reside in a single Faculty. These programs allow students to undertake course work from more than one discipline.

In addition to the programs described in this section, some Faculties at UVic offer interdepartmental or interfaculty degree programs. For details, consult specific Faculty, department or school entries.

A student may complete a General Degree Program by combining one of:

- Arts of Canada
- European Studies
- Film Studies
- Health and Society
- Indigenous Studies
- Social Justice Studies
- Technology and Society

and one of:

- A General Program offered in the Faculty of Humanities
- A General Program offered in the Faculty of Social Sciences
- A Minor Program offered in the Faculty of Fine Arts (with the exception of the Music Minor)

The degree awarded will be a BA General Degree granted by the Faculty of Humanities or the Faculty of Social Sciences.

A student may also complete a General Degree Program that combines two of

- Arts of Canada
- European Studies
- Film Studies
- Health and Society
- Indigenous Studies
- Social Justice Studies
- Technology and Society

The degree awarded will be a BA General Degree granted by the Faculty of Humanities or the Faculty of Social Sciences.

For further details on the requirements for a General Degree Program, see the "General Program" entries for the Faculty of Humanities (page 196) or the Faculty of Social Sciences (page 290).

Arts of Canada Program

The Faculty of Humanities and the Faculty of Fine Arts jointly offer an interdisciplinary program in the Arts of Canada, intended to give students the opportunity to gain a broad knowledge of Canada’s artistic diversity. This is a General Program leading to the BA degree. See "General Program" (page 196) in the Faculty of Humanities. Students may obtain a Minor by completing the requirements for the General Program together with a Major or Honours program or other degree program in another department or faculty. See "Minor Program" (page 197) in the Faculty of Humanities.
Although there is no formal language requirement for the Program, students are strongly advised to develop proficiency in French. Students are strongly urged to take advantage of electives which provide a strong historical, sociological, economic, linguistic, political background to the study of Canadian arts. These should be chosen in consultation with the Director of the Program.

Film Studies Program

The faculties of Humanities and Fine Arts jointly offer a General Program in Film Studies. This program leads to the BA degree. See “General Program” (page 196) in the Faculty of Humanities. Students may obtain a Minor by completing the requirements for the General Program together with a Major or Honours program or other degree program in another department or faculty. See “Minor Program” (page 197) in the Faculty of Humanities. Priority for admission to courses in Film Studies will go to students registered in the Film Studies Program or majoring in one of the departments offering courses in the Program.

Film Studies Minor Requirements

Students wishing to declare a Minor in Film Studies should contact the Advising Centre for their faculty after completing AHVS295A (Introduction to Film Analysis) and AHVS 295B (Introduction to Film Studies) with a grade of B- or better in each course.

Students in this program are required to take 9 units of courses (except AHVS 295A and AHVS 295B) selected from the following list:

Global Development Studies

The faculties of Social Sciences, Human and Social Development, Humanities and Education jointly offer an interdisciplinary General and Minor program in Health and Society. The program offers a forum for exploring a diverse range of disciplinary perspectives on health issues with an emphasis on the social determinants of health and provides students with an ability to explore the field. Students select a concentration in one of five health-related focus areas: Aboriginal health, addictions and mental health, aging, disability, and children and youth. Students obtain direct experience in health research or involvement in community based health-sector activities. By completing the requirements for the General program together with an Honours, Major, or General program, students may obtain a Minor.

No more than 3 units of the required 300- and 400-level course work can be taken at another institution and at least 6 of the required units must be completed at UVic. The 9 units of required 300- and 400-level course work cannot form part of the 300- and 400-level department requirements for a student’s Honours, Major, or General Program; co-requisite courses in other programs may be counted toward the Minor.

General and Minor Requirements

Introductory course work in social and/or biomedical approaches to health from an approved list .............................................. 3.0
HS 200............................................................................................................... 1.5
Electives numbered 300 and above from the approved list of theory and methods courses .......................................................................... 4.5
Specialization courses numbered 300 and above from one of the approved list of courses in Aboriginal health, addictions and mental health, aging, disability, and children and youth .................................................................................................................... 3.0
HS 400A or 400B ............................................................................................................. 1.5

Approved course lists can be found on the program website: <http://uvic.ca/interdisciplinary/healthsociety/undergraduate/electives/index.php>

No more than two courses can be taken from the same academic unit to fulfill elective or specialization credits.

Inquiries about the program, its prerequisites or its list of approved electives or prerequisites can be directed to the Health & Society Minor Program Director (healthdirector@uvic.ca) or the Interdisciplinary Program Assistant (idpассив@uvic.ca).

Indigenous Studies Program

The Faculty of Humanities and the Faculty of Social Sciences jointly offer an interdisciplinary program in Indigenous Studies intended to provide both Indigenous and non-Indigenous students with a core program incorporating Indigenous world views and ways of knowing. This is a General Program leading to the BA degree. See “General Program”
European Studies

The Faculties of Fine Arts, Human and Social Development, Humanities and Social Sciences jointly offer an interdisciplinary General and Minor Program in European Studies. The principal aim is to provide students with a thorough understanding of Europe’s multifaceted history, cultures and fast-changing political realities. Important changes that the process of European integration has provoked regarding Europe’s internal political, social, cultural and economic structures and their relationship to the rest of the world will be examined.

By completing the requirements for the General Program together with an Honours, Major, or General program, students may obtain a Minor.

Core Courses

- EUS 100 – Introduction to European Studies
- EUS 200 – Introduction to European Cultures and Identities
- EUS 300 – European Integration: Socio-Economic and Political Developments

General and Minor Requirements

- 4.5 units of EUS 100, 200, 300
- 7.5 units of elective courses chosen from the list of Eligible Courses at <www.uvic.ca/interdisciplinary/europe> and EUS 301, 390, 490. No more than 3.0 units may be taken from any single department except with the permission of the program.
- Successful completion of at least 1.5 units of courses in a European language other than English

Students are strongly encouraged to plan their program in consultation with the Program Coordinator for European Studies (eusprog@uvic.ca). Further information can be found at <web.uvic.ca/isminor>.

Diploma Program in Intercultural Education

The interdisciplinary Diploma Program in Intercultural Education (IE) has been designed for part-time or full-time study for students and professionals working or planning to work in a multicultural or cross-cultural environment. Participants can expect to acquire:

- a clearer understanding of the problems connected with intercultural relations and cross-cultural communication, and the various approaches to their explication;
- a clearer understanding of issues concerning cultural conflicts, racism, power and equity;
- skills which will facilitate intercultural relations and cross-cultural communication in the workplace, in the local community and in international settings;
- skills which will assist in reducing conflict and inequality based on racism and ethnocentrism.

The curriculum is designed to develop both knowledge and skills, and consists of interdisciplinary credit courses totalling 15 units, apportioned as follows.

Core courses

6.0
Electives .................................................................................................................. 6.0

EITHER
Practicum ............................................................................................................... 3.0
or Final Project ....................................................................................................... 3.0

OR

SOCI 335 or ANTH 335 or GNDR 332 ............................................................. 1.5

Up to 3.0 units of transfer credits may be approved as elective credits. Subject to the specific requirements of the degree program, credit obtained within the Diploma Program in Intercultural Education may be transferable to a regular undergraduate degree program. Students may apply course credit to both a degree and the IE diploma.

The program is administered jointly by the Intercultural Education Diploma Program Steering Committee and by the Division of Continuing Studies. All inquiries concerning details and regulations of the program should be addressed to the Program Coordinator, Division of Continuing Studies, 250-721-6460, or info@uvics.uvic.ca. Information is also available at <uvics.uvic.ca/intercultural>.

Co-operative Education Option
Diploma candidates who complete one or more work terms through the Co-operative Education Program will receive Co-op notation on graduation.

Students who participate in the Co-operative Education Option are normally required to complete one work term after the completion of core courses and a minimum of three elective courses.

Co-operative Education students within the Diploma Program in Intercultural Education will normally be required to complete all their program requirements within a 24-month period in order to maintain the full-time status required for participation in the Co-operative Education Program. Please refer to the general regulations pertaining to "Undergraduate Co-operative Education" (page 62) of the University of Victoria governing all co-operative education students. For further information on the Co-operative Education Option and to apply for the Co-op program, visit the Co-op website at: <www.uvic.ca/hfpcwcoop>.

Social Justice Studies
The Faculties of Human and Social Development and Social Sciences jointly offer an interdisciplinary General and Minor Program in Social Justice Studies. The program is also available as a Diploma, through the Division of Continuing Studies (see below). The aim of the program is to provide students with a thorough understanding of the range of ways to address and engage with issues of social inequity and injustice in the contemporary world from a variety of disciplinary perspectives.

By completing the requirements for the General Program together with an Honours, Major, or General program, students may obtain a Minor.

General and Minor Requirements
SJS 100, 200, 400A. Normally, students take 100 first, but 100 and 200 may be taken in either order, or concurrently. 100 and 200 are interdisciplinary team-taught courses. .............................. 4.5
Courses selected from the list of Theory and Method Electives ....................... 3.0
Courses selected from the list of Substantive Electives ................................. 3.0
SJS 400B, or a further 1.5 units selected from either list of eligible courses. ................. 1.5

No more than 3 units of electives may be taken from any single department, program, or school.

Diploma program Requirements
SJS 100, 200, 400A ................................................................................................. 4.5
Courses selected from the list of Theory and Method Electives and list of Substantive Electives (A minimum of 3 units must be selected from each of these two lists) .................................................. 9.0
SJS 400B, or a further 1.5 units selected from either list of eligible courses. ......... 1.5

No more than 3 units of electives may be taken from any single department, program, or school.

Students are strongly encouraged to plan their program in consultation with the Director of Social Justice Studies (sjs@uvic.ca) or the Interdisciplinary Program Assistant (idpassis@uvic.ca). Further information can be found at <www.continuingstudies.uvic.ca/humanities-and-social-sciences/programs/diploma-in-social-justice-studies>.
Human Dimensions of Climate Change

Minor Requirements
The Faculty of Social Sciences, in collaboration with other relevant faculties, offers an interdisciplinary Minor in the Human Dimensions of Climate Change. The program provides students with a thorough understanding of the human aspects of climate change, including its political, economic, geographic, psychological, sociological, anthropological, business and legal dimensions, together with an introduction to its physical aspects. Students may obtain this Minor by completing the requirements below, together with an Honours, Major, or General program.

Note: any course at the 200 level or above that constitutes part of a student's Honours, Major, or General program, or option, cannot be used to fulfill the requirements for the HDCC Minor.

The Minor program requires 12.0 units of coursework:

HDCC 200 ..................................................................................................................... 1.5
HDCC 300 ..................................................................................................................... 1.5
HDCC 400 ..................................................................................................................... 1.5
7.5 units from the list of approved electives ............................................................... 7.5

At least 1.5 units of approved electives must be at the 300 or 400 level. Electives selected from GEOG 101A, 103, 314, EOS 110 and EOS/ES 365 are recommended; however, no more than 3 units of approved electives may be taken from any one unit without permission from the Director.

Certificate Program Requirements
The Faculty of Social Sciences, in collaboration with other relevant faculties, offers an interdisciplinary Certificate in the Human Dimensions of Climate Change. The program provides students with a thorough understanding of the human aspects of climate change, including its political, economic, geographic, psychological, sociological, anthropological, business and legal dimensions, together with an introduction to its physical aspects. Students may obtain this Certificate concurrently by completing the requirements below, together with an Honours, Major, or General program, or as an independent program.

The Certificate program requires 10.5 units of coursework:

HDCC 200 ..................................................................................................................... 1.5
HDCC 300 ..................................................................................................................... 1.5
HDCC 400 ..................................................................................................................... 1.5
HDCC 490 ..................................................................................................................... 1.5
4.5 units from the list of approved electives ............................................................... 4.5

Notes:
- No more than 3 units of approved electives may be taken from any one unit without permission from the Director. If not already part of their program, students are encouraged to select one of GEOG 103 or EOS 110 from their lower level electives as well as EOS/ES 365 from upper level options.
- Students cannot complete both a certificate in HDCC and a Minor in HDCC.
- Queries about the program, its prerequisites, or its list of approved electives should be directed to the Director of the Human Dimensions of Climate Change program (hdcc@uvic.ca) or to the Interdisciplinary Program Assistant (idpassis@uvic.ca). Students are encouraged to inquire about and to plan their HDCC program in consultation with the program director. Further information can be found at <web.uvic.ca/hdcc>.

Technology and Society
The Faculties of Social Sciences, Humanities, Fine Arts, Engineering, Human and Social Development and Education jointly offer an interdisciplinary program in technology and society. The program is intended to be a forum for engagement with technological change and its rapid transformation of contemporary society. In a global culture driven forward by dramatic developments in technology, no aspect of politics, culture and society is left undisturbed. The Minor in Technology and Society is designed to provide students with the opportunity to critically engage in the exploration, understanding and critical assessment of technological change in a wired and wireless world.

This is a General program leading to a BA degree. See “General Program” (page 196) in the Faculty of Humanities. Students may obtain a Minor by completing the requirements given below, together with an Honours, Major or General program in another department or faculty. Students in the program are required to take 4.5 units of core courses (TS 200, 300, 400) as well as 6.0 units of upper-level electives chosen from approved courses, for a total of 10.5 units. If any of these upper-level courses form part of the student’s Honour, Major or General program, they cannot be used to fulfill the requirements for the Minor in Technology and Society.

Queries about this program can be directed to the Technology and Society Minor Program Director, (techsoc@uvic.ca), or to the Interdisciplinary Program Assistant (idpassis@uvic.ca). Further information can be found at <web.uvic.ca/techsoc>.
