

THE CITY.

The Contract Awarded. Messrs. Bishop & Sherbourne have been awarded the contract for Dr. A. C. West's new residence; work will be commenced without delay.

The Old Omnibus. Mr. M. J. Conlin has assumed proprietorship of this long and well established place of resort, and will be glad to welcome old friends, both of himself and of the house.

Gabriel v. Mesher. The case of Gabriel v. Mesher was upon appeal yesterday before the Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Walkem and Mr. Justice Drake. It occupied the whole day and will be resumed this morning.

Remains Sent Home. The brother of E. Williams, who died recently at the hospital, yesterday came over from Couville. The body of the deceased, embalmed, will be shipped back to the old home in Cardiff, Wales.

In Their New Home. The Council of the B. C. Board of Trade will meet for the first time in their new building this morning, when a large list of business which has been accumulating for weeks past will receive attention.

Vancouver's By-laws. The case of Bell-Irving vs. the City of Vancouver stood for hearing yesterday in the Divisional court, but in the absence of Mr. Justice Crease, who heard the earlier chapters of the case, it was adjourned until Friday.

Band Uniforms. The uniforms for the members of the Victoria Athletic club's band, which made its first appearance in public at the Market hall on Saturday night, are expected next week. The band made a very favorable impression on Saturday.

K. of P. Notes. Installing Officer M. J. Conlin will install the new officers of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, to-morrow evening. Grand Chancellor Hughes and Col. H. F. W. Behnen are paying a visit to the various lodges on the mainland.

Dismissed in the End. There was but one case before Police court yesterday morning. Mr. D. McPhadden was charged with a breach of the Fire Protection by-law. The case had been remanded on several occasions, and yesterday, there being no appearance for the prosecution, it was dismissed.

Passed Away. The many friends of Mr. William Smith, of Comox, will be pained to learn of his death in this city yesterday. Deceased, who was well known on the Island, was 60 years of age, and formerly resided in Minto, Ontario. The funeral will be held to-morrow from the residence, 164 Pandora avenue, and from St. Barnabas church at 2 p.m.

New Law Firm. Hon. Theodore Davie, Q.C., has formed a partnership with Mr. Robert Cassidy, barrister, of this city, under the firm name of Davie & Cassidy. Mr. Allan Macdonald, a barrister for some years resident of the Court of Queen's Bench for Manitoba, and Mr. George Powell, B.A., barrister of the Province of Ontario, who are both awaiting admission to the Bar of this Province, the latter a son of Dr. Powell, of this city, have entered the office of the new firm, which will commence business immediately.

Revival Meetings. There was a large gathering of little ones at the Lyceum on Sunday afternoon, nearly all the city Sunday schools contributing to swell the number. Rev. Hampson Hemus addressed the children in a style at once impressive and effective. He was listened to throughout with marked attention as he spoke of the prominent children of the Bible and drew lessons from their lives. In the evening the Lyceum was crowded to overflowing to hear Mr. Hemus, who during her stay in Victoria has attracted perhaps the largest audiences of any lady revivalist visiting this city. She is a very eloquent speaker, and is endowed with rare persuasive powers, which are enhanced by the ring of earnestness accompanying every sentence she utters. The revival services will be continued throughout the week.

A la Chicago. From a correspondent in Chicago, Illinois, the news is received that Mrs. Kuna, well known to Victorians, was lately the victim of a bold and rather cool robbery in the city by the lake. Mr. and Mrs. Kuna went out about 1:30 p.m., and at about 3 o'clock Mr. Kuna returned to find that the house had been entered, and money, jewelry and a watch, a present from the parents of Mrs. Kuna, taken. The cool part of the proceeding was the fact that while the house was being ransacked a letter carrier rang the bell and handed a letter to a well dressed man minus a coat, who was no doubt the thief. The letter was found on the box from which the watch was taken. Mrs. Kuna thinks Chicago will be a good place to leave jewelry out of.

Chinese Mission Concert. The members of the Methodist Chinese mission gave a social concert in honor of the teachers of the mission last night. The girls of the Refuge Home were invited and took part in the programme, which was as follows: Chinese instrumental piece, played on an instrument in use 500 B. C., Chan Sik Kam; "The loving shepherd," the girls; solo in Chinese, George Chan; "Revive us again," in Chinese, accompanied by Chinese instruments, the boys; "The Gipsy boy," by Jessie, Sarah and Emma; recitation, "Don't be mean boys," Tom Chue; song with Chinese orchestration, the school; instrumental solo, Mary; song, girls; reading, "The twins," by George Chan; song, school; song, "Sweet rest at home," girls; song, "Sowing in the morning," school. The programme closed with a motion song by the school, after which those present were served with tea and some very nice refreshments (in English).

Central Branch School. The Central branch school opened yesterday morning with a good attendance. Desiring to relieve as far as possible the present crowded condition of the schools, the trustees decided to fit up the gymnasium in connection with the Central school. The place was accordingly lined, windows cut in, and the interior divided into four comfortable rooms. The lighting, heating and ventilation are first class, and Trustees Lovell and Hayward, who attended the opening yesterday, expressed themselves as being well satisfied. The rooms are numbered 1, 2, 3, and 4, and the teachers in charge are Mr. Schuyler, Miss Lawson, Mr. Hawkey and Miss Lorimer, in the order named. Under these teachers are placed four classes of mixed pupils drawn from the first, second, third and fourth divisions of the boys' and girls' departments of the Central school. The placing of the boys and girls in the same room is an experiment, the result of which will be watched with interest by the teachers.

The James Bay Bridge. The plan for the repairing of the James Bay bridge was placed in position yesterday, when most of the material required for the work was also brought to the scene of operations. Pile driving will commence to-day.

The List is Filling. The list of applicants for a charter to establish a new Court of Independent Foresters in Victoria now includes thirty-six names, and organization work will be proceeded with just as soon as the necessary formalities can be disposed of.

At the Cathedral. There will be communion service in Christ Church Cathedral on Friday morning, commencing at 8 o'clock, when all communicants are requested to be present. On the same day, it is understood, Bishop Perrin will be consecrated in Westminster Abbey.

Victoria's Last New Industry. All the heavy machinery at the Canada Paint Co.'s factory, Janion's wharf, is in operation, and the works are turning out their first products. Almost everything which will be sold, excepting, of course, the raw materials, is produced at the works, even to the cans in which the paints and oils are put up.

The Advance-Note Trick. A warrant has been sworn out against Henry Jensen, charging him with obtaining money and goods under false pretences. Jensen shipped on board the schooner Labrador, and got an advance note of $10, which he intended to use for a general dealer carrying on business on Johnson street, to honor. The cook was, however, ashore when the Labrador sailed, and his note is accordingly worthless.

A Flying Visit. Mr. Florian L. Waldeck, alias Wolfe, who, some time ago, figured so conspicuously in police and private detective circles in Victoria in connection with a charge of embezzlement preferred against him by his employers in San Francisco, has paid the city a flying visit. He arrived on Saturday night and left again last evening for Seattle. He is looking well, and is in better health and spirits than when last here.

A Charitable Object. The Victoria West Amateur Dramatic Society intend giving another entertainment in the Philharmonic hall on Saturday evening, March 4, when they will reproduce "Nevada, or the Lost Mine." The proceeds of the entertainment are to go to Mrs. Harris, the widow of the late J. N. Harris, whose sudden death a few weeks ago was caused through the explosion of the boiler at the Tambo Island mines. No doubt the entertainment will be largely patronized, as the society in charge seldom fail to draw a crowded house.

That Liquor By-Law. Mayor Beaven's Liquor License by-law was discussed in Calvary Baptist church on Sunday evening last by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Coombes, the congregation being unusually large and very attentive. The reverend gentleman did not approve of the measure, holding that it would advance the temperance cause, but little, if at all, while establishing a strong monopoly beneficial to existing liquor interests. Rev. Mr. Coombes thinks the best possible results could be obtained if the existing licenses were first cancelled, and then the council could enact that no more should be granted.

After Life's Fiftal Fever. On Sunday afternoon last all that was mortal of the late John Lomax was committed to a grave at Ross Bay cemetery, by Rev. J. E. Coombes of Calvary Baptist church officiating, and the pall-bearers being Messrs. C. Alexander, S. Coomes, T. Alexander, S. Whitley, S. Booth and W. H. Wheeler. The will of the deceased gives property in and about Victoria, totalling in value some $10,000, to a half brother on the old Virginia plantation. "The old horse and wagon and $100 cash" go to Kirk Jackson; Godfrey Kennell gets $100, and Mrs. Pierre, senr., is given a house and lot, the former furnished.

The Billiard Tournament. The Victoria Hotel English billiard tournament, for the valuable prizes offered by Mr. P. T. Patton, commenced at the Victoria Hotel last evening. Eighteen gentlemen have entered and two games will be played each evening, the first commencing at 8:30 p.m. and the second at 10 p.m. Contestants are requested to be on time, so that the draw can be played through without postponement. In the first game, played last evening, Mr. W. H. Mawdsley, 35 start, somewhat easily defeated Mr. M. Thursby, 90 start. The next handicap was won by Mr. Morsley against Mr. Thursby, the score standing 250 to 229.

THE DRAW. Tuesday, Feb. 21. 8:30 p.m.—Ed. Pauline, 103, v. J. F. Smith, 50 start. 10 p.m.—H. Combe, 75, v. C. J. Prior, 60 start. Wednesday, Feb. 22. 8:30 p.m.—C. Steinfeldt, 50, v. J. Manning, 75 start. 10 p.m.—Mr. Stafford, 100, v. A. T. Howard, 75 start. Thursday, Feb. 23. 8:30 p.m.—Mr. Bailey, 70, v. B. J. Perry, scratch. 10 p.m.—R. Allan, 115, v. J. M. Maurice, 50 start. Friday, Feb. 24. 8:30 p.m.—A. Stewart-Potts, 115, v. R. Eckardt, 50 start. 10 p.m.—J. McGregor, 100, v. C. W. Rhodes, 50 start.

St. Paul's Concert. A moonlight night, better walking, tram car service every half hour, and a first class programme should attract a large audience to the St. Paul's church concert in the public hall, Craigflower road, Victoria West, this evening. Doors open at 7:30. Concert to begin at 8 sharp. Tickets 50c.

On the Fraser. Mr. Herbert Cuthbert returned from a trip to the mainland last evening where he has been to urge on the work on his new wharf and warehouse. He reports a growing scarcity of produce, especially potatoes, most of the pits being frozen. He, however, managed to secure about 150 tons of general produce. Feb-11

LICENSE LIMITATIONS.

The By-Law to Limit Liquor Licenses Laid Low by the Council.

Dissatisfied Contractors—Formalities Which Were Not Complied With—A Lesson.

A special meeting of the City Council was held last evening, His Worship Mayor Beaven presiding. There was a full attendance of aldermen.

A communication from Building Inspector Northcott, called attention to the dangerous condition of verandahs on Government, Yates, Figgard and Johnson streets, and recommended their removal.

Ald. MUNN moved that the report be received and copies sent to the agents, owners or occupiers of the premises complained of, intimating to them that the verandahs must be removed forthwith.

The motion was seconded by Ald. Baker and passed.

Mr. A. S. Fraser wrote complaining that his order for laying of sidewalks had been rejected by the Street committee although it was the lowest. He said that he had asked the City Engineer whether it was necessary to give bonds before sending in the tender, and was answered in the negative. He consequently sent in his tender with a certified check, but it was not taken into consideration.

Ald. BAKER explained that Mr. Fraser had not complied with the conditions of the specifications, according to which bonds should have been given. When the City Engineer was spoken to on the subject, he said that he had no recollection of making any such statement as that attributed to him by Mr. Fraser.

Ald. MILLER pointed out that printed forms were supplied, and Mr. Fraser should have seen by these that it was necessary to give the names of two bondsmen. He moved that Mr. Fraser's attention be called to this fact.

Ald. BELVEA pointed out that clause six of the specifications was somewhat misleading. It called for a deposit of $100 as an evidence of good faith, while clause ten set forth that it was necessary to give bonds for $500. This was somewhat misleading and unnecessary. He seconded Ald. Miller's motion.

Ald. BRAGG stated that all the contractors except Mr. Fraser had complied with the conditions of the specifications. Had the contract been awarded to him, the others would have protested.

Ald. MILLER's motion carried.

Mr. JOHN DEANS wrote complaining that his tender for the repair of James Bay bridge had been rejected, although the lowest. If it were because he had not paid his license, he considered it a very lame case, inasmuch as he had always paid his license regularly. The fact was, Mr. Deans contended, that 15 per cent. of the contractors supplying the corporation had not paid their license fee at the time their contracts were awarded. In the present instance the city lost $88 by this transaction.

Ald. BAKER, as chairman of the Street committee, explained that Mr. Deans had not complied with the terms of the specification, not having paid his license. He accordingly moved that this communication take the same course as the preceding one.

Ald. BELVEA seconded the motion.

The MAYOR pointed out that according to the specification no tender should be "received" until the license be paid.

Ald. STYLES favored the continuance of the clause rendering a money deposit necessary, arguing that it was a guarantee of good faith, and that the amount should be forfeited if the work was not carried out.

Ald. BELVEA pointed out that the deposit could not be legally retained even if the contractor failed to undertake the work contracted for. He thought it a very unfortunate thing that the city should be the loser of $88, as in this instance, simply because a fee of $5 did not happen to be paid up to date.

The alderman quoted from the Revenue by-law to show the license was to be paid up to November 30 of each year.

The MAYOR quoted from the Municipal Act, section 206, to show that the license must be paid in advance.

Ald. BAKER's motion prevailed.

A communication was read from the Secretary of State, intimating that tenders had been called for the erection of a powder magazine; that the work would be proceeded with without delay, and the magazine removed from Beacon Hill Park as soon as possible.

City Engineer Wilton reported that the retaining wall on the site of the Canada Western hotel, between Courtney and Wharf streets, had caved in, rendering Courtney street unsafe. He suggested that Courtney street be closed to traffic until the breach be repaired.

On motion of Ald. Belyea the report was referred to the City Barristers, with the request that prompt action be taken.

The publisher of the World's Fair Guide wrote asking for the assistance of the Corporation. The communication was referred to the City Engineer.

The by-law to enable the Corporation to raise $250,000 in anticipation of the rates of the year was finally passed.

The Council then went into committee of the whole on the by-law to limit the number of liquor licenses.

Ald. MILLER opposed the by-law, contending that it was altogether unnecessary. In support of his contention he quoted sections 216 and 224 of the Municipal Act, which give the Licensing Commissioners all the powers necessary to deal with licenses. He moved that the by-law be laid on the table, taken up this day twelve months, and that the committee rise.

The MAYOR pointed out that sub-section B, 212, was the one which governed the present point.

Ald. MILLER conceded this, but contended that the sections cited by him were sufficient to govern all cases. He said it seemed as if the Licensing Commissioners were disposed to shirk their responsibility.

License fee was $250 half yearly—$400 per annum.

Ald. BELVEA was asked if he was prepared to go on with his Public Health by-law, and explained that pending the passage of otherwise of the Public Health Act now before the Local Legislature, he did not think it advisable to go on with the by-law just at present.

The MAYOR said that the Medical Health Officer was anxious to have his powers extended. It was a matter of great importance to the city that they should be.

Pursuant to notice of motion, Ald. Miller moved that the Police committee be requested to formulate rules for the guidance and governance of the Police force.

Ald. BELVEA explained that he had written to several of the neighboring cities asking for a copy of their police rules. As soon as he received answers he would compile a code.

The motion carried.

Ald. STYLES asked what the delay was with reference to the Oak Bay sidewalk, a work decided to be carried on some months ago under the provisions of the Local Improvement By-law.

The MAYOR explained that the by-law was prepared, and only waited for someone to move in the matter. All that was to be done was to levy the assessment.

Ald. BELVEA recommended that the by-law be held over for the present. There were good reasons for so doing.

The recommendation was adopted, and the Council adjourned at 10 o'clock.

Reinstated. Messrs. V. E. and W. E. Ottaway have been reinstated in the Grand Lodge, C. O. F. M. U., with all their past honors in the order.

Over the Bay. An excellent programme will be presented at St. James hall this evening, when some of the most popular local amateurs will be heard. The concert promises to be a great success.

To Organize Monday. All-courts of the Ancient Foresters in the city hold a general meeting in their hall, Government street, on Monday evening, for the purpose of considering the organization of a Circle of the Companions of the Forest.

First of a Series. A pleasant evening is in store for those who attend the Y.M.C.A. rooms to-night. This will be the Poets' night, and the Ven. Archdeacon Scriven will give a brief lecture on "The Life and Character of Longfellow."

There will also be vocal solos by Mrs. Arowsmith, Mrs. Kent and Mrs. Booth, as well as a number of select readings and recitations by several young ladies under the instruction of Mrs. Caldwell.

Literary Society. The Y. P. L. A. of the First Presbyterian church held their usual weekly meeting last evening in the schoolroom. After the business on hand had been disposed of a very enjoyable programme of music, recitations and readings was entered upon, to which the following ladies and gentlemen contributed: W. C. Douglas, Miss Bulman, Mr. Coburn, Mr. Hay, Miss Martin, Mr. Marwick, Miss Grant, Mr. W. C. Wilson, Miss Peters.

A Church at Auction. The old St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, located on the corner of Courtney and Gordon streets, was sold yesterday at auction, by Mr. George Byrnes. The property was bought in by Dr. Milne on behalf of the Board of Managers of the church, the bid being $12,000. The legal requirements being fulfilled, the property can now be disposed of at private sale. Negotiations are pending to close a sale for $20,000, which has been offered for the property.

St. Andrew's Literary Society. The school room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was fully crowded last evening. The young ladies of the Literary Society had promised a concert and tableaux, and those who gathered in the commodious school room were thoroughly pleased and delighted. The concert was a pronounced success, and the ladies deserve the highest commendation. Mr. Robertson, the president of the society, acted as chairman. Mr. Burnett, organist of St. Andrew's church, opened the evening's entertainment with a piano solo, and immediately afterwards the curtain rose over a gipsy scene, in which the Misses Gordon, Russell, Jameson and Spring took part. Mr. J. G. Brown sang "Anchored in his usual finished manner, and his song was followed by the Misses Schroeder, Heisterman and A. Russell, who appeared in costume as "The Three Old Maids of Lea," Miss Hutchison singing the solo accompaniment. Ditty K. Binson locked well as "Little Miss Muffet." Mrs. McCready, a lady with a grand contralto voice, sang "Let Me Dream Again." Miss Schroeder appeared as "Priscilla." Mr. Wolff favored with two violin solos during the evening. "England, Ireland and Scotland" were well represented in costume by Misses Heisterman, Hutchison and Carmichael, after which Miss Christie sang in costume, "The Gipsy Maid." Misses Walker and Heisterman appeared as "Rowena and Rebecca." Miss Hutchison appeared in costume, and neatly rendered "Eileen Alanna," and Mr. J. Boyd was selected to appear behind the calcium light and represent "The Miseries of a Bachelor." Miss Leech closed the evening with a piano solo. The various tableaux were carefully prepared, the ladies having spared no pains to make the entertainment what it proved to be—a grand success.

W HENEVER I see Hood's Sarsaparilla—this now I want to buy and say

"Thank You" I was badly affected with Eczema and Scrofula Sores, covering almost the whole of one side of my face, nearly to the top of my head. Rinding sores discharged from both ears. My eyes were very bad, the eyelids so sore it was painful opening or closing them. For nearly a year I was deaf. I went to the hospital and had an operation performed for the removal of a cataract from one eye. One day my sister brought me Hood's Sarsaparilla which I took, and gradually began to feel better and stronger, and slowly the sores on my eyes and in my ears healed. I can now hear and see as well as ever." MISS AMANDA FAIRBANKS, 176 Lander Street, Newburgh, N. Y.
